A NOTE FROM A VISITOR

"A note for your Newsletter if you ever get it out!" (He must know what a near thing it is sometimes--Agnes)

"Roger, TOM and MARYANN visited on Thursday, May 24. First time we have been in a place like the "WILD HOG IN THE WOODS" since the sixties. Thanks for a great evening and a pleasant reminder. The music and friends were great. Coffee! Not bad! We'll be thinking about you all in Ohio!"

And we thank you for coming, ROGER, TOM, and Mary Ann, and extend an invitation to you to return. We enjoyed having you with us.

ART THIEME IS COMING!

The following article was taken from Come For To Sing: I guess I'm just oldfashioned." ART THIEME, recently described in Sing Out as "the folk singer's folksinger," is one of the most skilled and respected folk musicians in Chicago. The admiration is shared by folk music fans and fellow performers alike. "I have nothing but respect for ART THIEME," Fred Holstein said recently when introducing ART at a show. "You want to learn how to sing and play traditional music? Listen to ART THIEME," is Rich Markow's advice. To watch ART run through his incredible collection of lousy puns, stories old and new, ballads, blues, story songs, finger-picking guitar styles, frailing banjo pieces, and historical facts about the music and the people who made it is to see a true folk musician at work. ART's devotion to traditional music is deep and real, and his strong desire to preserve and share it makes him an invaluable part of Chicago folk music.

So come and see ART THIEME perform Thursday June 28 at the Coffeehouse. This is one of our SPECIAL EVENTS and therefore the prices will be $2 for members and $2.50 for non-members.

SINGING AND SKETCHING

Coffeehouse member KAREN GOGOLICK is more than just a talented musician. While at the coffeehouse one recent evening, she did a sketch for the newsletter of "MR. JIMBO." (JIMBO LINDBERGER) who was playing during OPEN MIKE. KAREN says she enjoys sketching musicians and hopes to contribute more drawings for future newsletters.

BY-LAWS

We have obtained a copy of our final BY-LAWS which we prepared, discussed, rewrote, and approved last November. Besides being a lot of legal language, they say what we are. For those of you who have joined since November and even for you charter members who might like to see how all those discussions of BY-LAWS turned out, we are enclosing a copy of the BY-LAWS with this newsletter.
