

MARCH & APRIL EVENTS

- Friday, March 6
8:00 - 10:30pm
- Graham & Company
Nelson Graham loves playing at the Hog and it shows. Folk, country, originals and old favorite tunes; it will be an evening to enjoy. Nelson may be joined by one or more friends.
- Friday, March 13
8:00 - 10:30pm
- Barley Brothers
These three gentlemen play in other bands like the Cajun Strangers and the Dirty Shirts, but they are here tonight to do some old-time music, country blues, fiddle and banjo tunes, and brother duets. The cast includes Jeff Burkhart on guitar, Colin Bazsali on banjo and mandolin, and Brian O'Donnell on fiddle.
- Friday, March 20
8:00 - 10:30pm
- Christopher Powers
Host of WORT's Friday morning folk show, Mudacres Bluegrass Special, for longer than anyone can remember, Christopher is a master of the mandolin and he knows his way around the guitar and bazouki as well. He has been playing at the Hog since the early days, and he also plays with the Old Tin Can String Band and teaches guitar and mandolin for UW Extension.
- Friday, March 27
8:00 - 10:30pm
- Christine Constanzo
Christine is a local singer-songwriter who tends toward narrative, poetry-driven songs; sometimes political and always something to make you think. Her influences include Kate Wolf, Greg Brown and Joni Mitchell. She accompanies herself on guitar. Help welcome her back to our stage after an extended absence.
- Friday, April 3
8:00 - 10:30pm
- Steve Schad
Steve is an accomplished guitarist, with a style that ranges from delicate to thunderous. He sings mostly his own songs. His lyrics are creative, some very heartfelt, some eclectic. And he plays several other instruments. His latest CD, Child of the New Frontier, is nominated for Best Album of the Madison Area Music Awards; "God Made Love" is nominated for Best Song; and he is nominated for Best Guitarist.
- Monday, April 6
7:30-9:30pm
- Coordinators Meeting
Hog business is transacted on the first Monday, approximately every other month. Check here for exact meeting dates. All members, volunteers and interested citizens are welcome to attend. You may have to look around for the meeting room, on the main floor or in the basement.
- Friday, April 10
8:00 - 10:30pm
- Bill and Bobbie Malone
The Hog is very happy to again host Madison's premier classic country duo. With Bobbie on mandolin, Bill on guitar, and two fine voices, they play and sing original and classic country songs, some of which are collected on their CD Gathering Shells and Other Memories. Bill is a renowned country music historian and hosts "Back to the Country" Wednesday mornings on WORT, 89.9 FM.
- Friday, April 17
8:00 - 10:30pm
- Jefferson County Bluegrass Band
Jefferson County Bluegrass Band was founded in 2003 by Brian Cate and Chris Falkner. With Brian on upright bass and vocals, Chris on banjo, guitar and vocals, Dale Ward on mandolin, resonophonic guitar and fiddle, and various artists on guitar and vocals, they play traditional and contemporary bluegrass music. Their hard-driving bluegrass and soulful ballads have pleased festivalgoers in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois and Iowa.
- Friday, April 24
7:00 - 9:30pm
- High School Acoustic Night
David Eagan will host an acoustic/acappella music night for and by high school students in the Madison area. He has invited folk instrumentalists and singers, solo or in ensembles. Such events in the past have packed the house and provided awesome music. Come and hear the upcoming folk generation.
- Note early start time.

BACON BITS

THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS

It takes a lot of people to work at the Coffeehouse, schedule performers, bake, buy coffee and tea, run sound, do publicity, the web site, the newsletter and more! To keep an all volunteer run organization going requires many special people who have a deep commitment to the foundations and ideas behind the organization.

In the organized mayhem of running a special event or a weekly coffeehouse or a barn dance, it's sometimes easy to forget the simple "thank you" for all the dedication and hard work people have put in to make The Wild Hog in the Woods happen. Trying to keep track of all the people who have in some form or another contributed to the Coffeehouse is an almost impossible task. Here are the names we remembered helped out in November and December:

List of January and February volunteers not available at press time. We will publish them in the next newsletter. You know who you are our thanks go to you for your support.

Thanks also go to all the performers that played at our concerts and barn dance.

"THANK YOU ALL! We couldn't have done it without you."
