MARCH EVENTS

AT THE WILD HOG IN THE WOODS COFFEEHOUSE

Friday, Mar. 3
8:00 - 10:00pm

Ben Doran, Lisa Johnson, Casey Day & Greg Matysik

Lisa, Ben and Casey will share a night of Celtic and original tunes in song circle style. The night will include many duets and trios of guitars and hammered dulcimer and voices; plus, as of press date, autochord, bowed psaltery, whistles, and maybe a bodhran, too!! Casey can be found/heard at many local coffee shops performing as a solo or with Greg Matysik. Ben and Lisa are often found as "Leafy Greens" at Farmer's Markets. Together, the three of them express their takes on some favorite tunes and songs.

Monday, Mar. 6
7:00 - 8:30pm

Coordinators Meeting

We welcome all members of the Hog and all other interested persons to discuss hogonomics and other Hog business. Come on down to the Wil-Mar Center and we'll get more acquainted.

Friday, Mar. 10
8:00 - 10:00pm

Chris Powers

Chris is a longtime veteran of the Hog, both as a soloist and band member. With his sense of humor driving many (but not all) songs, his mellow voice and his skillful playing of the guitar and mandolin, he presents a great show. He can be heard on Mudacres Bluegrass Special on WORT Saturday mornings.

Friday, Mar. 17
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Harmonica Hour

DeWayne Keyes and Doug Barrette's performances are like an old radio show with music, jokes and stories. With DeWayne on harmonica and vocals and Doug on guitar and vocals, their music includes Americana, folk, old country, blues and originals. Join them for an evening of mirth and music.

Saturday, Mar. 18
2:00 - 4:30 pm

Hootenanny!

Hootenanny is BACK! They will be held at the Wil-Mar Center. Join us for some lively song sharing. Bring music and stringed instruments. This is a free event, but Phill-Up the Pig will be there to accept donations.

Friday, Mar. 24
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Two Johns and a Nancy

Two Johns & A Nancy are John Crossman, John Argentiero and Nancy Rost, three songwriters from Madison, creating an eclectic mélange of acoustic folk-pop-rock-jazz Americana. With a wide variety of intersecting musical styles, strange collections of instruments and unique presentations of original songs, Two Johns & A Nancy offer up soundscapes that combine the traditional and the experimental.

Friday, Mar. 31
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Common Chord

Tracey Jane Comer, Michael Bryant and friends present an evening of music from swing to folk and lots in between. They offer a variety of originals and unique covers, including lots of vocal harmonies and a number of instruments, mostly with strings. More at traceyjanecomer.com

APRIL EVENTS

AT THE WILD HOG IN THE WOODS COFFEEHOUSE

Friday, Apr. 7
8:00 - 10:00pm

Mad City Jug Band

This band has been around about eight years, playing the music they love. Forever pleasing audiences, they are on a mission to preserve the classic jug band music of the early 1900's as well as hits from the 1960's revival. Expect blues, rags and a lot of upbeat music.

Friday, Apr. 14
8:00 - 10:00 pm

The Ramona Tribute

Our longtime and beloved volunteer Ramona Johannes passed away last October. She loved folk music and is remembered for her kindness to others. Performers will include Peter and Lou Berryman, Lisa Johnson, Skip Jones, Stephen Lee Rich and others. They are all performers whose music Ramona loved and who in turn loved and respected Ramona.

Saturday, Apr. 15
2:00 - 4:30 pm

Hootenanny!

Join us for some lively song sharing and sing-a-longs. Bring music and stringed instruments. This is a free event, but Phill-Up the Pig will be there to accept donations.

Friday, Apr. 21
8:00 - 10:00 pm

Roxanne Neat

Since 1974, Roxanne has performed traditional and contemporary folk music and ballads, accompanying herself on guitar. She draws from Appalachian, Scottish, Irish and English traditions. Roxanne performs original songs and those of her favorite singer-songwriters. She has entertained audiences in coffee houses, colleges, libraries, schools, and house concerts and is a Hog veteran.

Friday, Apr. 28
8:00 - 10:00pm

Milkhouse Radio

Milkhouse Radio is a Madison string band, specializing in bluegrass, but ringing the rafters with country, blues and fusion covers of whatever strikes them right. Their wide range of vocals is accompanied by banjo, guitar, fiddle, mandolin and upright bass. Their names (in alphabetical order) are Brad Astor, Scott Baumann, Michael Farnsworth, Jen Clare Paulson and Bruce Stein.

OPEN MIKE

This is available for walk-in's between the two scheduled sets. Sign up at the door when you arrive. Expect to do one to three songs. If more than one person sign's up, you may be asked to limit the number of songs to less than three. Open Mike performers are not paid and do not share the tips left in Phill-up. Open Mike is a great way to try out a new song or to perform for the first time on a stage.

2017 Hog Membership Renewal

There's no time like the present to renew your Hog membership for 2017. You get discounted admission to coffeehouse events, receive our printed bi-monthly newsletter, and help support a great tradition of presenting live, local music in an inviting way.

“Subscribing Members” pay the regular individual or family dues. “Working Members” pay a lower rate and agree to volunteer at the coffeehouse at least three times a year. Volunteering is easy. Just contact our volunteer coordinator, Lisa Johnson, at 608-442-5753 to get started.

Clip the handy form in this newsletter and bring it along with your dues the next time you come to the coffeehouse. If you prefer to renew by mail, make your check payable to Wild Hog in the Woods and send it and the form by US mail to Wild Hog in the Woods, c/o Wil-Mar Center, 953 Jenifer Street, Madison, WI 53703.

Please renew your membership today!

Gratefully,
Your dedicated Wild Hog Coordinators
