NOVEMBER EVENTS

AT THE WILD HOG IN THE WOODS COFFEEHOUSE

Friday, Nov. 3
7:30 - 9:30pm

Mad City Jug Band

This band has been around for over eight years. Their playing and singing is infused with their love for this classic brand of American music. If you weren't around in the early 1900's, you might remember the jug band revival of the 1960's. Come on down to hear blues, rags and a lot of upbeat music.

Monday, Nov. 6
7:00 - 8:30pm

Coordinators Meeting

We welcome all members of the Hog and all other interested persons to discuss hogonomics and other Hog business. Come on down to the Wil-Mar Center and we'll get more acquainted.

Friday, Nov. 10
7:30 - 9:30pm

50% Folk

Wayne, Mark, Dean and Tanya have come down from Oshkosh to the Hog several times. They play songs of the 50's/60's Folk Revival, including folk, blues, gospel, old-time country and Tin Pan Alley. Strong vocals are accompanied by guitar, mandolin, dobro, banjo, autoharp, electric bass and washtub base.

Friday, Nov. 17
7:30 - 9:30pm

Songwriters in the Round

Les Hoffman has been musically involved in Madison for over thirty years, as a bassist, singer, reed player, Cajun musician and lately as a singer-songwriter. He is heavily influenced by music from the South, especially New Orleans. T Burns writes "Songs about love lost and lost time, time spent drunk or drinking, the radio, the rodeo and Jesus and drinkin'". (From "My Troubles Are Easy") Thistle Petterson is a bicycle touring environmental activist and singer-songwriter, with guitars of steel and nylon and a powerful voice.
