HELP! THE HOG NEEDS VOLUNTEERS!

The Wild Hog is an all-volunteer run folk music cooperative. Over the years, volunteer participation of the membership has ebbed and flowed. The last several years, we have been in a pretty severe ebb mode. Other than board members, who already volunteer to do sound/blurbs/publicity/newsletter, we currently have only three people signed up as volunteering members; the rest are all subscribing only.

A volunteering member only needs to come in three times a year to fulfill the commitment of being a volunteering member. We have 35 Fridays to cover. So you see our situation if there are only three to cover it all.

Lisa Johnson, volunteer coordinator, and Ben Doran, baker/sound coordinator, have been coming in every Friday to keep things running for a few years now. However, Ben has just started a new job and will not be available most Fridays.

As you can imagine we have reached something of a crisis, since we need one person to do stage MC/admission and one to staff the baked goods table. One person can't do both at the same time. Set-up and clean-up also go better with more people.

Volunteers are our lifeblood. If the Wild Hog is to continue, we really need more members to commit to volunteering. It is not hard work, and it is fun! You get to listen to some great music and you get free admission. We'll even spot you a cookie and coffee or tea.

Won't you please help us out? You arrive at 6:15 pm to help with set-up, and we are usually done by 10:15 or 10:30 pm. Even just once or twice over the nine months we are open would be great.

Please call Lisa Johnson at 608-442-5753 or email lisa.johnson1123@att.net to sign up for some dates to help out. Phillip-the-Pig and Lisa say 'Thoinks VERY MUCH!!'.
