

Lee Murdock - Special Event

Friday, April 17th

8:30 - 10:00 P.M.

Admission $10

Lee Murdock has uncovered a boundless body of music and stories in the Great Lakes. There is an amazing timelessness in this music. Great Lakes songs are made of hard work, hard living, ships that go down and ships that come in. Noted as a fluent instrumentalist, Murdock's musical influences span fifteen generations, combining ragtime, Irish, blues and folk styles with his flair for storytelling in songs. "... a fine job of recreating history and holding it up to a poet's light,"—Sing Out! Magazine.

Sound Workshop

Saturday, March 28th, 2 - 5 P.M.

Who should attend?

1. Current sound volunteers
2. Anyone thinking about volunteering to setup and run our sound system.

Rich Baumann's Cabin Fever Family Night

EARLY START TIME! Shake off the winter doldrums with singer-songwriter Rich Baumann. The evening will start with energetic and hilarious songs that will entertain and engage kids and adults alike. We'll end with a song circle, so don't leave your voices at home. Rich is one of Madison's best singer-songwriters, and has spent the last several decades touching audiences of all ages with heartfelt songs, sensitive musicianship, and a clear, warm voice. Check him out at www.richbaumann.com

Friday, Mar. 13
8:00 - 10:30 pm

Marty Feldhake

Marty Feldhake is a singer-songwriter who lives in the eastern reaches of Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Marty's unique and expressive songs are reflective of both his current home and his youth in the farm country of Wisconsin. Marty will be accompanied by longtime friend Andy Morton on mandolin, and special guest fiddler Benjamin Gulder. He'll be sharing songs from his newly released CD "Have Times Really Changed" (available at the show!)

Friday, Mar. 20
8:00 - 10:30 pm

David Schindele

David is an excellent singer-songwriter and pianist, who has graced the Hog stage many times. He'll be joined by two friends: seasoned songwriter and performer Joe 'Snare' Vosen, creator of the musical "Caffeine Dreams"; and songsmith John Max Jacobs, also a versatile guitarist and singer. They will share an eclectic mix of covers and originals ranging from rockabilly to blues to ballad. The evening promises to be one of warmth, improvisation and merriment! You can listen to and buy David's music at <http://daveschindele.com>

Thank you Volunteers

Spring is almost here. What better way to clear the dust from your soul than to come to the Hog. We are sure to clear your mind and cheer you up! And if you're feeling really down, I can guarantee helping us out with the set up or take down will be downright invigorating. If you are interested, please contact our volunteer coordinator, Lisa Johnson at 608-442-5753.

Thanks go out to the people who are already steady volunteers and also to those in the handy hog contact list. They book the talent, gather and write a little info for each performer, schedule the volunteers, update and maintain a website, put together a newsletter, fold, label, stamp and mail the newsletters, and much more.

Finally, we are grateful for all the wonderful performers that play at our concerts. You play with gusto and enthusiasm, a full-out performance. You keep the Wild Hog the valued treasure that it is.

"THANK YOU ALL!

We couldn't have done it without you."
