January Events At the Wild Hog in the Woods Coffeehouse

Monday, Jan. 4
7:00 - 8:30pm

Coordinators Meeting

The Hog coordinators meet bi-monthly. All are welcome to come down to give input, listen in and help make decisions. Meetings are held at the Wil-Mar Center.

Friday, Jan. 8
8:00 - 10:30pm

50% Folk

Wayne, from Madison, gets together with Mark, Dean and Tanya from the Fox Valley to play a lot of songs that harken back to the Folk Music Revival of the Fifties and Sixties. Their repertoire includes folk, bluegrass, gospel and old-time country, as well as a few older "oldies". Strong vocals are accompanied by guitar, banjo, mandolin, dobro, autoharp, electric bass and washtub bass. More information about 50% Folk is at www.fiftypercentfold.com

Friday, Jan. 15
8:00 - 10:30 pm

Dave Schindele

Dave likes winter and is hoping that this El Nino will back off for a while so he can enjoy life in Wisconsin. Come in and warm up with Dave and some mystery guests. Dave plays keyboards but he knows some guitar players. He writes songs in the contemporary-pop vein and his songwriting friends lean toward folk-rock. The audience is expected to sing along when they know the words.

Friday, Jan. 22
8:00 - 10:30 pm

Rich Baumann

Rich has written a couple of new songs since his last appearance at the Hog and he will be telling stories of his travels to tornado-ravaged and recovering Joplin, MO, and his week at the Coffeyville Humanities Project. At this writing there are no guests scheduled to join Rich, but you never know. Then again, he does a pretty good job of entertaining an audience all by his lonesome.

Friday, Jan. 29
8:00 - 10:30 pm

Skip Jones with Wisconsin Trillium

Wisconsin Trillium, featuring Wisconsin Folksinger-Storyteller Skip Jones, Violinist Randal Harrison and Upright Bassist Marilyn Carien return to the Wild Hog bringing their eclectic collection of feel-good, family-friendly folk music with a touch of lively jazz and stories of home, hearth and social commentary. This is a folk music show at a folk music venue and you are the folks, so bring your voices... singing is mandatory.

Thank you Volunteers

The leaves are all down and the snow should be here. Hmm, where is that snow? Well, if you haven't already been doing it, make it a New Year's resolution to attend some music at the Hog.

Welcome to our newest volunteer who will be booking our musicians—Stephen Lee Rich. Thanks also go out to the people who are already steady volunteers, including those in the handy hog contact list. They book the talent, gather and write a little info for each performer, schedule the volunteers, update and maintain a website, fold, label, stamp and mail newsletters, and much more.

If you think you could squeeze in a little volunteer time for the Hog, please contact Lisa Johnson at 608-442-5753.

Finally, we are grateful for all the wonderful performers that play at our concerts. You play with gusto and enthusiasm, a full-out performance. You keep the Wild Hog the valued treasure that it is.

"THANK YOU ALL!

We couldn't have done it without you."
